

THE CORRECT ANSWER IS INDICATED WITH YELLOW HIGHLIGHTING.

1. More than half of the clinical investigators and practicing oncologists surveyed would order an Oncotype DX[®] assay for a 60-year-old woman with an ER-positive, node-negative tumor smaller than 1 centimeter.
 - a. True
 - b. False
2. A minority of the practicing oncologists surveyed would recommend adjuvant chemotherapy for patients with intermediate Recurrence Scores[®] regardless of tumor size and nodal status.
 - a. True
 - b. False
3. Who is more likely to order an Oncotype DX assay for a patient with a 1.8-cm, ER-positive, node-positive breast tumor?
 - a. Clinical investigator
 - b. Practicing oncologist
4. In the survey of clinical investigators and practicing oncologists, what proportion of treatment recommendations were changed based on Oncotype DX results?
 - a. <10%
 - b. 20%
 - c. >50%